

Juror for Prizes Matthew Wallace

Matthew Wallace (Grand Forks, ND) is the North Dakota Museum of Art Assistant to the Director for Programming and also Director of the Rural Arts Initiative, a community outreach program that brings Museum exhibitions to small towns throughout North Dakota and northwest Minnesota. He schedules programming events, runs the Summer Concerts in the Garden, curates the Winter Art Auction as well as one exhibition a year.

Wallace was born in Devils Lake, ND, and raised on a farm near Warwick, ND, on the Spirit Lake Reservation. After graduating from Warwick Public High School, he attended the University of North Dakota. He graduated with a B.A. in English in 1999. Upon completion of his degree, Matthew served two years in the Peace Corps in Romania teaching English to fifth-eighth grade students in Aiud, Romania. Upon returning to the States he interned in the Washington offices of Senators Byron Dorgan and Joseph Lieberman. Currently, he is pursuing his Masters of Liberal Arts degree from Minnesota State University, Moorhead while working full time.

Our 2010 Exhibition Sponsor

Thank You!

Prizes will only be given in categories if there is a sufficient amount of entries within that category. For example, if there is only one artist who has entered photographs in the show, they will not receive a prize within the photography category, however, these pieces will be considered for the Best of Show award.

Awards
Best of Show - $100
Juror's Choice Awards - $50 each

The Arts Center

The Arts Center is a nonprofit gallery and performance space operated by the Jamestown Fine Arts Association (JFAA) to enrich the Jamestown Area Community through the Arts.

The Annual JFAA Art Show is juried only for the purpose of making cash awards. All works submitted, unless rejected by the installation committee, will be displayed.

Eligibility

All work whether wall-hung or 3-dimensional must be safe, ready to display, framed and wired appropriately for hanging. All work must also be clearly labeled using the tags provided. Any work delivered that does not meet these requirements will not be displayed. Watercolors, prints, drawings and pastels must be framed under glass or Plexiglas. All artwork must be original, made within the last 3 years and cannot have been previously exhibited at the Jamestown Arts Center. Entry to this show implies agreement to the above conditions. The Arts Center staff reserves the right to reject any entry that does not meet eligibility requirements.

Entry in the exhibition automatically grants permission to photograph art for promotional or educational purposes.
